Articles Extract of the Association Education and Solidarity Network

Article 6 – Member categories
Membership in the association is open to Belgian and non-Belgian individuals and legal entities. The association is comprised of private individuals and legal entities duly established in accordance with the laws and customs of their home country.
The association has three member categories:

a. The College of Founding Members:
The founding members are the Mutuelle Générale de l'Education Nationale (MGEN), Education International (EI) and the Association Internationale de la Mutualité (AIM).

b. The College of Active Members:
Any teachers' union or professional organisation active in the education sector or any mutual society serving teachers or civil servants may become an active member of the association.

c. The College of Associate Members:
Any private individual or legal entity interested in the association or wishing to contribute to furthering its objectives and accomplishing its missions, as well as any private individual or legal entity providing financial or other support, may become an associate member of the association.

Article 25 – Membership dues

The dues
The association's resources are comprised of:
- Annual membership dues paid by founding members;
- Annual membership dues paid by active members;
- Annual membership dues paid by associate members;

Amount of the dues
The amount of the membership dues is set by the General Meeting based on a proposal made by the Executive Board.

a. The dues for founding members are set at €20,000.

They may include material and intellectual contributions.

b. The dues for active members are set at 5 cents per member in local currency. The basic dues for active members are €50 minimum. The maximum amount is €10,000.

If there are several individual members from a single country and if that country is experiencing financial difficulties, members have the possibility to form a group in order to gather the €50. The group must then appoint a representative who acts as the intermediary for the network.

c. The dues for associate members are €5,000 minimum.

Terms of paiement:
The Annual membership dues are paid annually by January the 1st, in cheque or Bank transfer.
Bank charges for transferring subscriptions shall be borne by the member organisations.
